Mildura Rural City Council

Mayor's Message

On behalf of Mildura Rural City Council, I am delighted to welcome all performers, adjudicators, families and visitors to our region for the 2025 Mildura Eisteddfod.

I'm pleased to share that entries have returned to pre-COVID levels, with more than 1600 entries across a broad range of disciplines including Speech and Drama, Pianoforte, Instrumental, Classical and Modern Vocal, Calisthenics, Dance and Choral.

A particular highlight this year is the growth of the Modern Vocal section, which now represents more than half of the entire Eisteddfod. This remarkable growth has enabled us to present five full days of performances, showcasing the vocal talents of our community and beyond.

This Eisteddfod also continues its relationship with international opera star Siobhan Stagg who was bestowed with the Keys to the City in 2023. Her ongoing support through the Siobhan Stagg Aria Award has made this one of Victoria's most sought-after accolades for classical singers, with several entrants from outside the region.

Another exciting development is the growing Calisthenics discipline, which this year has been officially registered as a competition with the Australian Calisthenics Federation. This milestone is a testament to the dedication of our local clubs and organisers.

The Eisteddfod provides a valuable platform for performers to develop their skills, gain experience, and receive expert feedback, all while bringing people together to celebrate the arts.

I extend my sincere thanks and congratulations to the Mildura Eisteddfod Committee and its dedicated volunteers for their tireless efforts in delivering another outstanding event.

Good luck and best wishes to all participants of the 2025 Mildura Eisteddfod.

MILDURA RURAL CITY COUNCIL

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to the 46th Mildura Eisteddfod!!!!

It's set to be another stellar year for the Mildura Eisteddfod, with our number of entries returning to pre-covid levels across all of our disciplines – just shy of 1600 entries.

Vocal now makes up over half of our event, making us one of the biggest singing competitions in the state, and reflecting the depth of talent and passion for singing in our region.

We are proud to continue building our Calisthenics credentials, becoming registered as an official Australian Calisthenics Federation competition.

This year has also seen Eisteddfod entries from almost all public and private schools in the Sunraysia region, so we thank our schools for supporting and encouraging performing arts in all its forms.

A highlight for this year is sure to be the Siobhan Stagg Open Aria Award, scheduled for Saturday 7 June, which will see some of Victoria's best up and coming classical vocalists vying for the award, with $2500 prize money up for grabs.

The Eisteddfod would not be possible without our hardworking committee, our army of volunteers, our generous sponsors and of course our wonderful teachers. To all of you I offer heartfelt gratitude for your support, time and care.

To our entrants, best of luck and remember to have fun and look after each other.

See you at the Eisteddfod!

DAY OF COMPETITION

What to do on the day

Step 1: Register

Eisteddfod staff need to know you have arrived to check your music (if you have it) and confirm the running sheet for your section. The registration desk is signposted.

- Trinity Lutheran College - Sunset Hall, registration desk near the rear entry.
- Mildura Art Centre, registration desk in the foyer.

You must register at least 30 before the session that includes your section. If you don't register, you will be marked as absent and be disqualified.

Step 2: Head backstage

Once you have registered, head to the backstage area. Your parents, carers or teacher can come with you backstage.

Once at the backstage entrance, you will be assisted by an Eisteddfod volunteer, who will:

- Direct you where to wait for your performance
- Help you with any props (if you have them)
- Show you where to go to get into costume (if you have one)
- Take you side stage when your section is about to begin

You will need to say goodbye to your parents, carers or teachers before you go side stage. Side stage is strictly for competitors only. the exemption to this rule is if a string instrument teacher needs to tune an instrument for a competitor or in specified sections of Calisthenics and Dance.

Some important things to remember when backstage:

- If you have a costume and need to change, you should bring coat hangers for your clothes and containers for other belongings.
- We advise against leaving valuables backstage. It is best to leave them with your parents, carers, or teachers.
- The Mildura Eisteddfod Society does not take responsibility for items left unattended at the venue.
- All electrical items used backstage and onstage are required to have been tested and tagged within the past 12 months.

Step 3: Showtime

Do your best and have fun!!!!!!

Step 4: Adjudication

After your performance, you will return side stage and then be guided back to the auditorium by an Eisteddfod volunteer to wait for the end of the section. Once everyone in your session has performed, the adjudicator will adjudicate and announce the prize winners.

Step 5: Collect your adjudicator sheet, certificate and prize details

Every competitor gets an adjudication sheet with your score and feedback from the adjudicator. Competitors who receive an Honorable Mention will also receive a certificate. Competitors who place in 1st or 2nd receive prize money or a medallion. All of these can be collected from the registration desk after your session has finished.

Please note that it does take some time for Eisteddfod Volunteers to sort and print adjudication sheets and certificates, so there may be a short wait at this time. Your patience is appreciated.

RULES, RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

All the finer details that you need to know about the Mildura Eisteddfod can be found in our Competition Guide and in the Calisthenics Rules.

These guides are provided to all entrants when they enter and can be found on our website www.milduraeisteddfod.com or by scanning the QR code.

AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

We are proud to offer an array of awards and scholarships that aim to encourage, foster and promote the pursuit of performing arts, especially by the young people of our region.

The following pages list the awards and scholarships on offer at this year's Eisteddfod.

These awards and scholarships would not be available without the generous support of our sponsors and partners who share our passion promoting and encouraging the region's young performing artists.

Many of our awards are named after Eisteddfod committee members and supporters who came before us. Some continue to be supported by family and friends of people who have been instrumental in the Mildura Eisteddfod over the years.

The Mildura Eisteddfod Society is proud to pay tribute to the many artists, teachers and community members after whom our awards are named.

MODERN VOCAL

Queenie van de Zant

Queenie van de Zandt is a powerhouse of Australian musical theatre, cabaret, and comedy. Celebrated for her electrifying performances and transformative storytelling, she masterfully bridges genres—from the raw poignancy of her acclaimed show BLUE: The Song of Joni Mitchell to the riotous hilarity of her cult comedy alter-ego, Jan van de Stool.

With 22 award nominations and 9 wins, Queenie’s career spans roles in television (The Newsreader), musical theatre (Into the Woods), and cabaret (Smoke & Mirrors). Beyond the stage, Queenie co-founded the Australian Musical Theatre Academy (AMTA), to empower performers through world-class training and mentorship.

An artist of depth, humor, and heart, she continues to inspire and enthrall audiences across Australia and the world.
