Mildura Rural City Council

A message from the Mayor

On behalf of Mildura Rural City Council, I am delighted to welcome all performers, adjudicators, family members and visitors to Mildura for the 2024 Mildura Eisteddfod.

This year marks the 45th Mildura Eisteddfod and it is encouraging to see approximately 1400 confirmed entries this year. This hallmark event provides opportunity to showcase and celebrate our region's most talented singers, musicians, and dancers. The event also attracts accomplished and new performers from across Victoria as well as interstate.

The 2024 Eisteddfod welcomes back the well-known categories of Pianoforte, Instrumental, Vocal, Speech, Drama and Choral. It is exciting to also see further sections for Calisthenics being included in the 2024 program, which provides a high-level competition opportunity to Calisthenics clubs. Two new exciting and entertaining vocal sections have been introduced this year, to celebrate Taylor Swift's recent Eras Tour in Australia.

The Eisteddfod provides the perfect stage for performers to receive valuable feedback from highly skilled adjudicators and it is pleasing to see an increase in entries from outside our region, introducing more people to our wonderful district to experience what Mildura has to offer.

I would like to acknowledge and congratulate the Mildura Eisteddfod organisers along with their dedicated, hardworking, and passionate volunteer committee for creating this fantastic community event year after year.

Good luck and best wishes to all competitors of the 45th Mildura Eisteddfod 2024.

Cr Liam Wood
Mayor
Mildura Rural City Council

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to the 2024, 45th Mildura Eisteddfod

We are hoping that 2024 brings more great performances, and showcases the immense depth of talent and passion for performing arts that exists within our community.

Our goal is to provide a platform where the young performing artists of our region can apply all their learnings in their chosen artistic pursuits, and can find an environment where they can learn and grow. When people participate in the Mildura Eisteddfod, they rise and shine!

We are proud to have brought another raft of amazing adjudicators to our community to share their wisdom and inspire our young performing artists.

This event simply would not be possible without our amazing and hard working committee, our generous sponsors, our local teachers of music and performing arts, and of course the families and carers of the many young performing artists in our community.

To all of you, we say thanks, and best of luck for this year's Eisteddfod!

PAST AWARD WINNERS

The Mildura Eisteddfod Society celebrates the talents of our entrants with the provision of awards across our disciplines.

Some of our awards have been running for over 30 years, demonstrating the depth of talent in our community through the generations.

All of our past award winners can be found in the Mildura Eisteddfod Society Hall of Fame, available on our website by visiting www.milduraeisteddfod.com or by scanning the QR Code below

Day of Competition

What to do on the day

Step 1 > Register

Eisteddfod staff need to know that you have arrived so they can check your music (if you have it) and confirm the running sheet for your section. The registration desk is signposted. If you are at Trinity Lutheran College Sunset Hall, the registration desk will be located near the rear entry. If you are at the Mildura Arts Centre, the registration desk will be located in the foyer area.

YOU MUST REGISTER AT LEAST 30 MINUTES PRIOR TO THE SESSION THAT INCLUDES YOUR SECTION. IF YOU DO NOT REGISTER, YOU WILL BE MARKED AS ABSENT AND BE DISQUALIFIED

Step 2 > Head backstage

Once you have registered, you can head to the backstage area. Your parents, carers or teacher can come with you backstage if you'd like.

Once you get to the backstage entrance, you will be assisted by an Eisteddfod volunteer, who will:

- Direct you where to wait for your performance
- Help you with any props (if you have them)
- Show you where to go to get into costume (if you have one)
- Take you side stage when your section is about to begin

Once you are about to head side stage, you will say goodbye to your parent, carer or teacher. Only competitors are allowed side stage, and strictly no parents, carers or teachers are allowed. The only exception to this rule is if a string instrument teacher needs to tune the instrument for the competitor, or in specified sections of the dance discipline.

Here are some other important things to remember about being backstage:

- If you have a costume and need to change, you should bring coat hangers for your clothes and containers for your other belongings. It is less likely to get lost that way.
- We advise against leaving valuable backstage. It is best to leave them with your parent, carer or teacher.
- The Mildura Eisteddfod Society does not take responsibility for items left unattended at the venue.
- All electrical items used backstage and onstage are required to have been tested and tagged within the past twelve months.

Step 3 > It's Showtime!

Do your best and have fun!

Step 4 > Adjudication

After your performance, you will return side stage and then be guided back to the auditorium by an Eisteddfod volunteer to wait for the end of the section. Once everyone in your section has performed, the adjudicator will adjudicate and announce the prize winners.

Step 5 > Collect your adjudicator sheet, certificate and prize money

Every competitor gets an adjudication sheet with your score and feedback from the adjudicator. Competitors who receive an Honourable Mention will also receive a certificate. Competitors who place in 1st or 2nd receive prize money or a medallion. All of these can be collected from the registration desk after your session has finished.

Please note that it does take some time for Eisteddfod Volunteers to sort and print adjudication sheets and certificates, so there may be a short wait at this time. Your patience is appreciated.

RULES, RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

All the finer details that you need to know about the Mildura Eisteddfod can be found in our Competition Guide.

This guide is given to all entrants when they enter the Eisteddfod, and can also be found on our website www.milduraeisteddfod.com, or by clicking on the QR Code Below:

AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

We are proud to offer an array of awards and scholarships that aim to encourage, foster and promote the pursuit of performing arts, especially by the young people of our region.

The following pages list the awards and scholarships on offer at this year's Eisteddfod.

These awards and scholarships would not be available without the generous support of our sponsors and partners who share our passion promoting and encouraging the region's young performing artists.

Many of our awards are named after Eisteddfod committee members and supporters who came before us. Some continue to be supported by family and friends of people who have been instrumental in the Mildura Eisteddfod over the years.

The Mildura Eisteddfod Society is proud to pay tribute to the many, artists, teachers and community members after whom our awards are named.

PIANOFORTE

James Rushford

James Rushford is an Australian composer, performer, researcher and educator. Holding a Doctor of Musical Arts (Piano and Composition) from the California Institute of the Arts, James has been active professionally for over 15 years as a performing musician and teacher.

Classically trained (with a personal emphasis on 20th and 21st century music in his playing), James teaches late beginner to advanced pupils, covering a diversity of repertoire and technical methods.

As an educator, James has been on faculty at Monash University (2020), RMIT University (2012-2014) and California Institute of the Arts (2014-2017), where he coordinated undergraduate and graduate composition programs.

CLASSICAL VOCAL

Ben Oxley

With over 20 years of teaching experience, Ben has helped many students achieve vocal freedom. Ben's own teachers include Eduardo Asquez, Andrew Field and Vernon Mackie, a pupil of Edgar Herbert-Caesari, the author of many books on singing.

Ben's students have achieved numerous exam, scholarship and competition successes, including recording contracts, entry into Sydney Conservatorium of Music, professional work with Opera Australia, musical theatre and film credits.

Ben taught at The Italia Conti Academy of Theatre Arts in London, and also had a private studio in London.

After overseeing The Australian Singing Competition, Ben wrote the ebook "Sing To Win" that outlines all the aspects of winning a singing competition.

Ben has previously adjudicated for the Bathurst, Gladstone, National Eisteddfod, Northern Beaches, Ryde, and Wollongong Eisteddfods.

MODERN VOCAL

Adam Przewlocki

One of Australia's leading show choir directors, Adam founded the first of his choirs, the Divine Divas of Sunbury in 2007. He has enjoyed an illustrious career as concert pianist, chamber musician and accompanist. He has performed as recitalist throughout Australia, USA, Europe, Taiwan, Korea, China, Japan and New Zealand.

Adam was Musical Director, pianist and vocalist with renowned cabaret group 'Pot-Pourri' for 10 years, undertaking more than 15 overseas concert tours with the 5-piece group. Adam's dedication and service to the Hume community has been acknowledged through being named 'Hume Citizen of the Year' in 2009, as well as being a National Finalist in the 2009 Herald Sun 'Pride of Australia' medal for services to the community.

During Adam's competitive career, he amassed over 200 prizes in Eisteddfods throughout Australia, including the City of Sydney Eisteddfod Piano Scholarship. Adam is also a recipient of the Queen Elizabeth Study Grant and is a Churchill Fellow. He also studied on full scholarship at London's Royal Academy of Music from 1992-1996.

He has performed in master classes conducted by Andras Schiff, John Lill, Peter Donahue, Alfred Brendel, Pascal Roge and Imogen Cooper. In 2019 Adam became Co Artistic Director of the award winning Choir of Hard Knocks.
